

THE International Grand Opera company will inaugurate a short season of opera at the Colonial next Thursday, Friday and Satevening, with Glordano's opera of "Fedora" as the opening bill, Mme, Therry singing the role of Fedora and Colombini, late tenor of the Manhattan Opera House, New York, the role of Loris Ipanoff. One of the most interesting features of the presentation of Fedora," is the fact that Mine. Therry, was the artist who originated it in paris, having been chosen by Giordano, the author. It will be the first presentation in Salt Lake of the famous play in its music form.

One of the choicest offerings will be "Lucia de Lammamoor" on Friday evening, which will serve to introduce Mme. Norelli, the "Swedish nightingale" and the coloratura artist of the company. Mme. Norelli is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Music la Stockholm, Sweden. At Covent Garstockholm, Sweden. At Covent Gar-den, London, she sang with great suc-cess and is likened to Christine Neil-sen that other great Swedish singer. She alternated roles at the Metropoli-tan Opera House, New York, with Mmc. Sembrich. This opera will also serve to introduce Signor Bari the Italian tenor.

For Saturday matinee the ever popular "Carmen" is to be the bill with Mme. Therry in the role of Carmen and Colombini as Don Jose.
On Saturday evening Verdi's charming opera, "La Traviata," will be sung closing the limited engagement of the company, with Mme. Noreill in the role of Violetta.

of Violetta. of Violetta.

The company carries its own scenery and orchestra, has a full chorus and is said to pay 110 railway fares across the country. In Seattle its receipts ran to $20,000 for the week.

The first presidency has thought best to continue the noonday organ recitals in the tabernacle, for the pleasure of the many tourists visiting Salt Lake. and who are always anxious to hear the organ as well as see the tabernacte. the organ as well as see the tabernacle. At this time, no set series of programs has been arranged for the ensuing week. Prof. McClellan stating that they would probably be impromptu, the titles of the pieces played being announced from the stand. The three Church organists will play next week as follows: Prof. McClellan, Tuesday and Wednesday; Tracy Y. Cannon, Monday and Saturday; Mr. Kimbalt, Thursday and Friday.

J. H. Summers, formerly of Toronto Canada, has been retained as the reguir tenor in the First Congregational Manager J. J. Daynes, Jr., of the Daynes-Beebe Music company has gone east on a three weeks' business trip, accompanied by Edward E. Jenkins. They will spend five days in Chicago and five days in New York.

Miss Helen Hartley, the violinist, is spending several months at home from San Diego, where she has been teaching. Miss Hartley believes that Los Augeles will some day be the musical metropolis of the country. Many fine artists go there from the east on account of their health, and find it so pleasant that they remain.

The First Presbyterian choir con-inues for another season, as in the ast, composed of Mrs. Jack Taylor, past, composed of Mrs. Jack Taylor, soprano. Miss Edna Dwyer contraito, Jred C. Graham tenor, and J. H. Curtis basso., with Miss Maud Thorne erganist. An organ fund is being steadily accumulated by the ladies of the church: but it is realized now that when the organ is bought, the choir saliery will have to be radically remodeiled. The idea is to have a spheroidal background much after the fashion of the curved wall at the ends of the tabernacle gaileries, as well as to have a for the curved wall at the ends of the tabernacle galleries, as well as to have a foundation support for the organ independent of the present building foundations. Moreover, it is proposed to extend the choir gallery forward several feet, and make other changes.

The position as saleslady and pianist with the Consolidated Music company variated by the resignation of Miss Dunbar, has been filled by Mrs. King of the late Beesley Music company. The store auarters occupied so long by the Beesleys on upper Main street was entirely variated Thursday, and things are being straightened out in the rearrangement of the enlarged quarters of the Consolidated Music company.

The Musical uploy of this afty meets

The Mysical union of this city meets temorrow at 2 p. m. for the annual election of officers. As there is much work and little glory for the president of the union, there are no fiercely competing tickets in the field, and the choice is as yet, anybody's.

The order of the musical service at homorrow's service in the Catholic cathedral, will be as follows:
Vuluntary (Op. 22) Reinicke Mass in GRosewig Soloists, Mrs. Corinne Hammer, Missa Mae O'Neill, Oswald Veltz.

Offectors, "Capating," Raff

Offertory, "Cavatino," Raff Violin salo Raymond Rebat "Tantum Ergo" Verdussen

Chorus. Verdussen Mrs. Hammer Soloist. Note Gleasch, organist and director, Tomororw's music in the First Methodist church will be as follows: MORNING.

Organ prelude
Anthem "Oh, that I had wings like
A dove." Stallard Offertory solo "The way of peace Mr. E. E. Kirby. Lloyd

EVENING.

Placing a specially registered cabinet eigan in the Orpheum orchestra has proven a success, as it "fills in" in a very convenient and effective way, besides supplying the place of instrusionals the orchestra does not have.

A J. Kisselburg, the well known bar-tone, has an engagement at the Christian Science church, where the organ is now being played by Mrs.

Prof Anten Pedersen is making good progress with his band of 25 boys at a season of Festspiele in Bayrouth his band of 25 boys at a season of Festspiele in Bayrouth his band of 25 boys at a season of Festspiele in Bayrouth himself with Siegfried Wagner as boss, as to a season of Festspiele in Bayrouth have fell it necessary to give the works of the studies. The college orchestra has 15

SIGNOR ZARA.

Baritone of the International Grand Opera, Special Attraction at the Colonial Theater, Oct. 14, 15, 16.

boys who are all doing well in that world's art in music and painting, special line of endeavor. special line of endeavor.

Organist Tracy Cannon will play preliminary to tomorrow morning's service in the First Congregational Church, Guilmant's "Andante in A Minor," and Marchant's "Cantilena." The offertory will be an Andante by Schnecker and the postlude a march by Wachs.

SHARPS AND FLATS

Caruso has acquired a kilt, together with the suspicion of a Scotch accent, during his visit to Edinburgh, The kilt cost $375, and the tenor proposes to wear it when he sings in "Luca di Lammermoor," for which he is already airing his accent, gaily asking all his friends; "Hoo are yee the oo?"-Los Angeles Times.

Caruso's voice has, after all, gone to the dogs. German newspalers report a strange scene withessed the other day at Neutadt. In the open window of a tavern a phonograph was reproducing an aria as sung by Caruso. A couple of stray dogs stopped, sat down, and listened. Several more came along, followed by details there were 15 colleged by details the contract of the contr listened, Several more came atoms, followed by others, till there were 15 altogether. There they sat, with cars pricked up, listening quietly to the great tener, and none of them showed the least disposition to howl.

Confirming musical America's re-cent announcement of the possibility of Mary Garden taking unto herself a husband, the prima donna has again said that she may retire permanently from the stage following the coming season thereof.

She wishes then to start on a tour of the world, going west from New York. She says she will linger in the Orient almost indefinitely. But finally-York, She says she will linger in the Orient almost indefinitely. But finally she will return to Paris, which she likes better even than New York. She predicts confidently that New York will soon become the center of the

The old wrangle between the American and Italian financiers controlling the Costanzi opera house in Rome has the Costanzi opera house in Rome has broken out anew at a time when it was thought that all differences were settled, and that the season's plans would be carried through without a hitch. The last split between the directors occured in June, but when Walter Mocchi, head of the American symbolic the season's plans when the season's plans with the season's plans would be carried through the season's plans would be carried through without a high season's plans would be carried through without a high season's plans would be carried through without a high season's plans would be carried through without a high season's plans would be carried through without a high season's plans would be carried through without a high season's plans would be carried through without a high season's plans would be carried through without a high season's plans would be carried through without a high season's plans would be carried through without a high season's plans without a high season's plans with the season's plans wit can syndicate interested in the opera-house, secured Mascagni as director-general all was apparently serene, Masgeneral all was apparently serene, Mascagni had planned the entire program for the season and the outlook was particularly bright. Today a bomb was exploded in the midst of a council meeting when Mascagni tendered his resignation, declaring himself dissatisfied with the financial arrangements of the American group. The registration was a heavy blow, Every effort has been made to propitiate the new director but in vain.

The competition for prizes offered by the Paderewski Fund to American composers closed September 1st and the manuscripts submitted show that the manuscripts submitted show that the offer of prizes interested a large number of composers.

For the prize of $100 offered for a symphony or symphonic poem for full orchestra, only eight manuscrips were

In the competition for a $500 prize for a concert piece for chorus and orchestra only eight manuscripts were

The offer of a $500 prize for a piece of chamber music for any combina-tion of instruments seemed to attract the most interest, and for this prize 39 pieces were offered. It is rather

Bayreuth Festivals May Soon Terminate

Bayreuth during the last few seasons have brought stories of lisintegration and dissension which oyal Wagnerites have been loth to be ieve. According to them, the greate Wagnerian singers are no longer t be heard at Bayreuth, having been at tracted to America by the lure of Amer can gold. Furthermore, Hans Richter, the musical director, and Herr you Gross, the executor of Richard Wag ner's will and the nominal head of the Bayreuth festivais, have withdrawn from active participation in affairs, os tesinty on the plea of ill-health, but really because of the increasing dominance of Siegfried Wagner. It is said that they resent the younger Wagner's tendency to "boss," as do many of the great musicians who formerly partici pated. In addition to these defections the German theatrical managers have reconsidered their action in agreeing not to produce "Parsifel" on the termi pation of the copyright, and at least one, Herr Neumann, announces that he will produce it at the earliest possible date.

To quote a visitor to Bayreuth whose official standing enables him to speak

OMECOMING American crities and musicians who have visited Rayreuth during the last few seers who take in Bayreuth as they seers who take in Bayreuth as they do any other of the 'sights,' the Americans and English no longer seem to bunger for the works as they did before having feasted so well thereon at home. This lack of interest is the natural result of the very fine performances that have been given, particularly at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York, where the very cream of the Wagnerian singers have been engaged, 'Not only is the interest of visiting people less, but here in Germany it is also on the wane, due in part possibly to the magnificent Munich festival. It may also be found in part to lie in the may also be found in part to lie in the fact that Frau Wagner, through advanced age and illness, has lately been prevented from keeping the management in her own hands. Then, too Hans Pichter, who has been such a great friend and helpmeet to Richard and Cosina Wagner, has been recorded. great friend and helpmeet to Richard and Cosima Wagner, has been reported to have withdrawn owing to ill-health. In reality the famous director simply stood by this year to see his place filled by another. Herr Adolph von Gross, who is the administrator of the will of Richard Wagner, has also withdrawn from active work and advice at Villa Wahnfried, for apparently, or officially, the same reason as Dr. Richter. There is no doubt that Herr von Gross is not as young and hale as he once was, yet to anyone who is personally acquainted with him, the fact is apparent that his heart beats as warmly as ever for the old cause. If one peeps behind the scenes it is plain that he caanot-content himself with Siegfried Wagner as 'boss,' therefore his retirement.

sacrifice and interest in the Festspiele by the artist is a thing of the past, and the chilly atmosphere of the farewell dinner given at the end of this, as every, season, with its forced speeches of thanks and words of praise could no wipe away this feeling of half-hearted-ness. The consecration with which the Bayreuth Festspiele have been surrounded seems to be on the downward path. When the legal protection that is afforded the works of the master, through the copyrights, has expired, the festival will be lowered to nothing more than a business enterprise, the same as any other opera house.

"Although Frau Cosima is still very ordive mentally, her obvised a workly, and the control of t festival performances, and this is done very sparingly. Therefore Frau Co-sima hears and knows now very little sima hears and knows now very little regarding the internal managerial affairs of the institution. Only very intimate friends of the family are allowed to visit Frau Wagner, and never are they permitted to remain in her presence for more than three minutes, and then the visitor must find his own excuse to withdraw, after receiving a sign from the daughter. For the daughter, "Although Frau Cosima is still very active mentally, her physical condition as such that the doctors have forbidden ar children to lay her open to any ex-

THE GENIUS FOR ACTING

ARS. LESLIE CARTER, who will appear at the Salt Lake I VI Theater next week, declares that much that is pure fiction has been written about her preparation for the stage. These stories have been told many times, she says, and each time with some new and imaginary frill In many works on the drama, it is stated that prior to her debut on November 10, 1890, Mrs. Carter had appeared in all sorts of plays, always in a so-called "thinking part." It has likewise been stated repeatedly that Mrs. Carter had been allowed to stand Mrs. Carter had been allowed to stand about the stage in various New York theaters, in order that she might become accustomed to appearing before audiences. All these stories she stamps as pure fiction, for up to the first night of "The Ugly Duckling," she asserts she had never appeared before an audience, whether amateur or otherwise, it is very evident, then, that Mrs. Carter, like Garrick and Fanny Kemble, knew her powers even before they had been tested, and that the years that she had been devoted to study were employed to admirable effect. Her preparatory studies consisted in mastering most of Shakespeare's heroines.

Mrs. Carter went on the stage as a means of supporting her mother and herself, while Fanny Kemble took to the profession as a means for saving her parents and herself from want. Miss Kemble made her debut as Juliet at Covent Garden. By the time the baleony scene was reached she had overcome her fright, and as she wrote afterwards, "For aught I knew, I was Juliet." In that one right Fanny Kemble saved the fortunes of her family and the theater where she appeared. Her description of her debut is paralleled by a review of Mrs. Carter's performance, printed in the New Mrs Carter went on the stage as dered on hysteria," but that she soo manifested that she was "almost elaryoyant in temperament" and that having recovered herself, "she evinced the true heartbeat, and was touching and tender without a strain of affec-rose to stage distinction with their first essay. While Garrick's debut was neocrding to the program of the time "An historical play, called the lift and death of King Richard the Third. Lower down in the bill, and followin Lower down in the bill, and following an account of "the murder of young Edward V, and his brother in the tower." he read "the part of King Richard by a gentleman (who never appeared on any stage)." This gentleman was none other than the renowned David Garrick. The success of this yenter of the young when you nowned David Garrick. The success of this venture of the young wine merchant was enormous. As Edward Rebbins put it, instead of a Richard who spouted his lines like a talking automaton, dressed in royal robes, there was a real schemer, hypocritical, vindictive, subtle, with just enough of the human touch to show how different was the idea of Shakespeare from the temperature. ransparent, idiotic villain too made to do duty for the origin was a slight perversion of truth. was a sight perversion of truth, however, the statement, "Who never appeared on any stage." Garrick had appeared as Harloqu'n for a single night A little later a certain Mr. Lydda electrified the quiet village of Ipswickly playing a round of popular part in a way that almost took their breath The young unknown seemed the actual he young unknown seemed the actual mbodiment of every part he played as may be surmised, "Mr. Lyddal (ac none other that David Garrick was none other that David Garrick From these instances one comes to th ter's performance, printed in the New York World, Nov. 11, 1890. At the start the reviewer says that the actress lag.

SALT LAKERS IN GOTHAM.

EW YORK. Oct. 3.-This long week of "Hudson-Fulton" frenzy is at an end, and residents are raising their hands in thankful-While the parades have been gorgeous and attractive, the naval displays up and down the Hudson have drawn more people to the banks than Fifth avenue and her up-in-the-air-priced seats have done; every window and high place where an improvised stand could be made has been utilized "stranger within our gates." | Young. Fifty-ninth street; near Sixth and Fifth games and sports will be held in the Madison Square gardens on that evening, attended by as many of the officers and men of the Italian fleet which has been specially detailed to this port for that day as can be spared. This will conclude the historical celebration, and send hundreds of tourists out of the city who assembled to pay honor to two men who must have shaken with surprise in their graves, at the honor paid them at this late day. at the honor paid them at this late day

On invitation of Mrs. C. F. Fisher mother of Miss Sallie Fisher, Mr. am Mrs. R. C. Easton and Miss Afto Young, have been visiting at thei delightful place in Port Washington

WRIGHT CIRCLING THE STATUE OF LIBERTY

In New York Harbor; from a Snapshot. Taken by a Deseret News Correspondent.

A man standing nearly eight feet high, dressed as Hendrik Hudson, and so ingeniously made up with head and ulders above the normal head, with shoulders above the normal head, with stilts attached to the legs—all so well arranged that nine out of 10 were de-ceived in the whole make-up-has drawn crowds wherever he has ap-peared. In one window along along the peared. In one window along along the of parade was a huge bath tub, and back of it, ranged four deep, were chairs for sale. Up the street a short distance opposite, was an undertaken's window with a large coffin with chairs back of it for sale. Amid all the enormous crowds were cordons of police who kept the good natured throngs well who kept the good satured throngs well in hand, dealing patiently with the swarms of East Side children who, by the way, evinced far more patriotist for our dead and gone heroes than the native born Americans. These children are the wonder and despair of all such exhibitions, they are filled with curiosity and, springing from the push-cart clement, seem to be everywhere at once.

On Wednesday next the Italians of New York finish this grand spectacle by a parade in honor of Verrazano, their countryman, who they claim, sailed down the Hudson nearly a hundred years before the man we are so honoring today. A monument to Verrazano will be unveiled at the Battery, at 1 o'clock on the 6th, and great avenues, taking the lead in observation stands.

There have been many strange and funny things in connection with the celebration. Boxes of all sizes and shapes have figured largely in the street parades as a means to give elevations. A man standing nearly eight feet high. ly eclipse most country places in or inality of design, and will be a constant reminder of the mountain cab stant reminder of the mountain cab so dearly cherished by Miss Fisi during her home life in Utah. No gra deur in effects, only comfort and the feeling of rest and communion with nature will pervade the spot, for after a long siege of work behind the faoi-lights, one longs for quiet and rest . . .

> Miss Sallie Fisher will remain i Chicago all winter; she is an immens favorite there, and her new part suit her in music and action, so that it is a pleasure to work. Mrs. Fisher will rent the home at Port Washington for the winter and divide her time between Maine and Chicago, until May next.

Mrs. Willard Young and daughter Alice are now located with friends where they will remain until Wednesday next, when Miss Alice enters school in upper Fifth avenue for the winter. Mrs. Young will visit with her sleec and nephew, Capt. and Mrs. Bryant S. Wells on Governor's Island. Capt. Wells and wife and children arrived last week and are now located in their new quarters on the island in New York bay.

citement if her life is to be spared much longer. Her daughter Eva is the only person who is permitted to acquaint her of any of the affairs of the son of Mrs. Jennie Smith Johnson, who has been a resident of this city for some time, is now a student. This is Mr. Johnson's first trip east, and he enters school here to be near his mother and finish in some special work. Mrs. Johnson is a busy woman and not always in the city, but when here, her friends are sure to meet her at Sunday services.

There is always a pleasure in meeting Mr. Miles Romney and his coworker W. T. Seate of Z. C. M. I. who they visit the city in the interest of th hig house. Mr. Romney comes so often he seems quite a familiar figure. Mr. Seare is equally welcome and both have many friends in the Utah colony

The Misses Louise and Claudia Hoit arrived last week from Salt Lake and will take a small apartment for the winter. Miss Claudia will continue her vocal lessons with Prof. Laurenson at his studie on west Fifty-eighth street.

Members of the Utah colony have Members of the Utah colony have had their first experience with dying machines during celebration week, and many a neck has been twisted following the wonderful flights of these human birds. Mr. Wright, circling the famous Statue of Liberty in the bay famous Statue of Liberty in the party of many labels. ed all the others in the marvels of hi

Last Thursday, Midshipman Dan McQuarrie left for Annapolis, to be present at his class dinner, a thing very few cadets care to miss. Mr. McQuar rie has had a very enjoyable time coming to the city, his vacation benefiting him in many ways,

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Riter and Mr Ben Riter of Logan arrived in the city last Thursday and registered at the Widderf. This being Mr. Ben Riter's appreciated by him; the trip has be an extensive one in Canada and north-ern New York. Philadelphia and Washington will be visited the coming

John D. Spencer and his son Danie have been having a great time while here. Monday, Mr. Spencer left fo Atlantic city to attend the convention the latter is now engaged in business here. Young Mr. Spencer was given a royal time while under the care of Mr. Wells, seeing and doing everything that would interest a boy with small experience in a big city.

Mr. Spencer returned Thursday, and through the kindness of theatrical friends was able to see the best going at the principal theaters. While it has been a business trip for Mr. Spencer, the short time allotted him, and t genuine delight of his son at all he h seen, has been the greatest enjoyme of all. The two leave for Washington this evening on their way home, stop-ping off at the insurance convention in Elder David Cummings, acting as haperone to four charming ladies from Utah, was present at last Sunday services. He will go to France to fill mission, and the several young ladi-to Berlin and Paris, Misses Ella Nei son, Edna Eyans, Hazel Barnes an Eva Crawford make up the part From Montreal they will sail on the Laurentic for Liverpool, being there by other friends and missio At the Sunday services, by request Elder H. J. Grant, Miss Evans sang favorite, "Come, come ye saints; ers Grant and J. F. Wells address rs Grant and 3. Property of the complete assembled at chapel services.

JANET

Fall colds are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar, the great throat and lung remedy. The genuine contains no harmful drugs. F. J. Hill Drug Co. ("The never substitutors,") Salt Lake City.

Utah Photo Materials Co., Commercial Photographs, 423 Main, Phone 1452.

Pure Drugs and Prescriptions our specialty Halliday Drug Company.

Bamberger Line Excursion to Salt

Lake. For L. D. S. Conference and Utah State Fair. One fare for round trip on sale Oct. 2nd to 9th inclusive, return sale Oct. 2nd to 9th inclusive, return limit Oct. 12th. Special train from Ogden Oct. 3rd. 4th. 5th. 6th and 7th leaving at 7:50 a.m. arrive Salt Lake 9:25 a.m. Special theater trains return from Salt Lake 2nd. 3rd. 4th. 5th, and 6th at 11:30 p.m. Ask our agents. Twelve Daily frains in addition to special trains on days mentioned.

THEATRE MAGAZINE

The Anderson Piano With its singing soul New York and Western Piano Co. E W. FIRST SOUTH.

THE MARK OF PAR -A GUARANTEE

READ THE

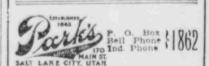

THEATRICAL NEWS AND STAGE PICTURES.

Do You Shoot?

Put a Thermos Bottle in your kit and you need have no fear of chilling winds nor frosty weather.

Keep your coffee hot for 24

We have them in all combina. tions and all kinds of cases.

228-230 MAIN STREET The Store for Mea and Boys.

$3.50

o price for "Money-Back" styles as season's best footwear for men women.

leathers, all lasts and values would bring as much as $5 at t shoe stores. Our price is $3.50, every pair carries the "Money-Guarantee."

Fleur-de-lisDainties

A New Home-made Candy ABSOLUTELY PURE

For Sale by SIXTH AVENUE DRUG. HILL DRUG.
BI IGHAM ST. PHARMACY.
WHITWORTH DRUG CO. WILLES-HORNE.

Charlton Shop

Women's Outfitters Exclusively.

EXCLUSIVE Tailor Made Suits. Coats, Gowns, Evening Wraps

AT MODERATE PRICES 122 So. Main. Salt Lake.

MUSICIANS' DIRECTORY.

MISS HELEN HARTLEY.

VIOLIN.
Pupil of Geo. Skelton and Ignaz Haroldi.
Studio 58 D St. Phone 3718nk

ANTON PEDERSEN.

Studio of Piano, Volin and Harmony. Odeon, 25 East North Temple. Both-phones.

HUGH W. DOUGALL. Teacher of Voice Building and Artistic Singing, studio 611-612 Templeton building, Bell phone, 2782.

WETZELL'S VOCAL STUDIO.

Mrs. Wm. A. Wetzell, Supervisor Music Public Schools, Bell Phone 2333-nk.

GEO. CARELESS. Professor of Music.

Lessons in Voice Traing, Violin. Plano, Cabinet Organ, Harmony and Sight Reading. Orders may be left at Fergus Coalter's Music Store.

TRACY Y. CANNON.

Pupil of Alex. Glulmant. Paris, and Alberto Jonas, Berlin. Pupils received in Plana Grand Pupils received in Ptano. Organ and Harmony. Studio 615-16 Templeton Build-ing Studio phone. Bell 1591. Residente, both phones. $22

WM. C. CLIVE. TEACHER OF VIOLIN AND PIANO.

Studio, Hi North State Street, just brough Eagle Gate, Ind. phone 1884, Or-hestras furnished for all occasions. ELIHU CALL. Voice Trainer.

Pupil of Minetti, Graduate of Penbody Conservatory of Music. Studio above Beesler Music Co. Voices tested free, daily from 12 to 1 p. m.

C. D. SCHETTLER, Celio Pupil of Anton Hekking and Jaques Van Lier. Berlin, Soloist at Nuremberg and New York, Conventions, Instructor of Celio, Guitar, Mandelin and Banjo.

ALEXANDER J. KISSELBURG. BARITONE.

Teacher of Singing and Vocal Placing

MRS. AGNES DAHLQUIST-BECK. STRAND. Graduate Stern's Conservatory, Berlin, Student Xaver Scharwenka, Studio,
163 B Street, Phone Bell 1944 nx.

SPENCER CLAWSON, JR., Piano Instruction.
Pupil of Marie Prenther and Theodore
Leschetizky of Vienna. Studio 604-5
Templeton Bldg. Bell phone 5151.

EDWARD P. KIMBALL.

Piano, Organ and German.
Sindio, Suite, 606 Templeton.
Bell, 4931. Ind. 1999a,
Assistant Organist of the Tabernacle, Organist, First M. E. Church, 1907-1909, Director of Music, Latterday Saints University, 1908-1909.

MRS. JOHN MORTON DAVIS, Piano Instruction.
LESCHETIZKY METHOD.
Fupt of Harold Von Mickwitz and
Julie Rive-King. Bush Temple Conservatory, Chicago, III.
119 W. North Temple. Bell phone 1720-x.

JOHN J. MCLELLAN. Organist of the Tabernacle, Director S. L. Symphony Orchestra. PIANO, CHIGAN AND THEORY, Both Phones, Office hours, 10-12, a. re.

Both Phones, Office hours, 10-12 a. m., and 4 p. m. Studio 619-11 Templeton ullding. MRS. MATTIE READ EVANS.

Pianist and Teacher.
Pupil of Godowsky, Berlin, Studio at 200 4th Avenue, Tel. 1251-k.

ANDREW BOWMAN.

Baritone.

BEL CANTO—
(Beautiful Singing.)

Late vocal instructor at the American Conservatory of Music, Chicago, Songs in English, French and Italian. Free volce test Studio: 60 Templeton. Residence Bell phone 1435-x

Teacher of Violin.

(Graduate from Trinity College London: References and Studio: Room 3. Board of Trade Building.

GEORGE E. SKELTON.

CLAUDE J. NETTLETON, Teacher of Violia.

620 Templeton Bid Ind. 4075.

Residence phone. Bell 4262-k.

EMILY H. SITZER-

Teacher of Voice and Piano 215 ee and Trust Bldg. Phone Bell

MISS JOSEPHINE MORRISON.

HARP SOLOIST.

Avaliable for concert and drawing toom angagements. A limited number of pupils accepted.

Studio at residence, 231 First Ava. Bell 'phone 5180y.

MRS. K. G. MAESER. Pianoforie Instructor. Residence and Studio. 2441 So. 8th East. Tel 2611-k.